

I am strongly against Docket 03-104 due to the fact that it will radiate more RF products into, not only Type 15 accepted device but also amateur radio. The power companies get a 'free pass' already with their "line noise". I feel this would be another product of their services that they can neglect.

Mike Sawyer
Radio Amateur
W3SLK